

69-7

RELATING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A HUMAN RESOURCES ADVISORY COUNCIL

WHEREAS, The Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962, as amended, provides for the establishment by the Governor of a State Manpower Advisory Committee with membership to comprise representatives of labor, management, and the general public;

WHEREAS, Public Law 90-576 (the Vocational Education Amendments of 1968) provides for the establishment by the Governor of a State Advisory Council on Vocational Education with membership to include a person or persons --

- a. Familiar with the vocational needs and the problems of management and labor in the State, and a person or persons representing State industrial and economic development agencies;
- b. Representative of community and junior colleges and other institutions of higher education, area vocational schools, technical institutes, and postsecondary or adult education agencies or institutions which may provide programs of vocational or technical education and training;
- c. Familiar with the administration of State and local vocational education programs, and a person or persons having special knowledge, experience, or qualifications with respect to vocational education and who are not involved in the administration of State or local vocational education programs;
- d. Familiar with programs of technical and vocational education, including programs in comprehensive secondary schools;
- e. Representative of local educational agencies, and a person or persons who are representative of school boards;
- f. Representative of manpower and vocational education agencies in the State, including a person or persons from the Comprehensive Area Manpower Planning System of the State;
- g. Representing school systems with large concentrations of academically, socially, economically, and culturally disadvantaged students;
- h. Having special knowledge, experience, or qualifications with respect to the special educational needs of physically or mentally handicapped persons; and
- i. Representative of the general public, including a person or persons representative of and knowledgeable about the poor and disadvantaged, who are not qualified for membership under any of the preceding clauses of this paragraph.

WHEREAS, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's rules and regulations supplementing the Vocational Rehabilitation Amendments of 1967 and 1968 provide that advisory committees shall be utilized by the State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency's program planning staff;

WHEREAS, the existing advisory committees now serving the areas of Manpower Development and Training, Vocational Education, and Vocational Rehabilitation have overlapping responsibilities and duplication of functions and contain identical representation of the academic, economic, and general public sectors of Arizona's populous, it is the desire and intent that the State of Arizona establish a single advisory council, responsive to the total needs of the people of Arizona, and contributing to the full development of human resources.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jack Williams, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby order and direct that:

There is established a Governor's HUMAN RESOURCES ADVISORY COUNCIL. This council replaces and assumes the functions of the existing advisory committees in the areas of Manpower Training, Vocational Education, and Vocational Rehabilitation.

The said HUMAN RESOURCES ADVISORY COUNCIL will carry out those responsibilities set forth in the Manpower Development and Training Act of 1962, as amended, the Vocational Education Amendments of 1968, and the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's rules and regulations supplementing the Vocational Rehabilitation Amendments of 1967 and 1968. Said council's responsibilities shall include making recommendations toward establishing and maintaining cooperative working relationships between agencies within the State having as part of their function the planning, funding, or implementing programs related to manpower, manpower training, and human resource development.

The members of the Governor's HUMAN RESOURCES ADVISORY COUNCIL shall be appointed by the Governor. Membership on said council shall correspond to pertinent federal regulations concerning manpower advisory councils or committees. The Chairman of the Governor's HUMAN RESOURCES ADVISORY COUNCIL shall be selected by the Governor from the membership of the council.

The council shall consist of eighteen (18) members. Members shall represent the organizations and interests specified hereafter.
